

ROSA ELEONORA PERCESEPE

FOUNDER, PRESIDENT, TEACHER AND WRITER

I am a certified Italian Teacher for foreign Students (DITALS II).

I have extensive experience in organizing language courses in schools, universities, companies, banks, consulates, humanitarian organizations and I also teach individual Students of various ages. Since 2007 I have been creating, managing and promoting intercultural events, educational trips and cultural exchanges, being the official Representative of AEDE Lombardia - Italy (European Teachers Association - www.aede.eu - www.aede.it), Founder and President of Auroville International in Italy E.T.S. (www.auroville-international.org - www.aurovilleitalia.it).

For a year I organized events related to International cooperation projects for the Province of Milan and I worked as a hostess and interpreter in fairs and conferences throughout my university career.

My strengths are knowing how to interact with an international clientele, customer care and managing events and educational services even with a large number of people.
